

A MINISTRY TOOLBOX

BOOK - vol. II

Sections A & B

PREFACE

“Scripture quotations taken from the NASB® 1995 - New American Standard Bible®, Copyright © 1960, 1971, 1977, 1995 by The Lockman Foundation. Used by permission. All rights reserved. www.Lockman.org”

Unless otherwise noted the scriptures used in this book are from the New American Standard Bible 1995 version (NASB).

Other Bible Translations are used as a necessity to stay within copy right guidelines, and they are clearly identified when used.

Very Important to understand
Each chapter is complete in itself (basically they stand-alone and in some chapters even sections stand-alone), thus, you will find some variations in the format from one chapter to the next.

INTRODUCTION

A Word of Explanation

Section A continues along the line of the first “Ministry Toolbox” book which is a resource book for any believer. Here you will find what I call “Timeless Ministry Principles” and “Timeless Ministry Resources” that could be a benefit for any believer in their walk with the Lord, but especially for those wanting to serve Him more effectively.

Section B is directed more at those working with young people. Here I share principles of ministry that I learned over the 28 years in youth ministry. I call these principles “Classic” because they come from my experience as the youth director at Boulevard Park Church where I served in youth ministry from September 1st 1968 to September 1st 1996.

The lesson plans listed were created mostly out of my devotional times because there was very little bible study resources available during those years and what seemed to me to be too shallow.

For any parents of teenagers, you might find most of these studies a great help as you disciple your own children during those very formative years.

For any pastors wanting to provide parents in your congregation with materials for them that would be very helpful as they teach their own children through their teenage years and to some degree into adulthood, hopefully you will direct parents to this resource.
